MELISSA SCHAUB

Head Coach
Fourth season

Melissa Schaub joined the Ohio State women's tennis staff in 2011-12. After serving as an assistant coach for a year, she spent 2012-13 as the interim head coach before taking over as the head coach the following season. The 2015 Big Ten Coach of the Year has led the Buckeyes back into the national picture, with back-to-back NCAA appearances in 2014 and '15 and a Top 20 ranking in 2015.

Schaub, a Lexington, Ohio, native who had a standout collegiate career at Tennessee, was on the coaching staff at Middle Tennessee State for five seasons, including one as head coach (2010-11), prior to joining the Ohio State staff.

The 2014-15 campaign was one of the best in Buckeye history. The squad had 20 wins (with seven losses), tying the program record mark first set in 2010 and had a school-best 11 shutouts during the year. The Buckeyes finished second in the Big Ten, posting a program-record 10 wins in league play, and advanced to the Big Ten Tournament championship match for the first time since 2004. The squad ended the year ranked 21st, the first time in the Top 25 of the final poll since 2000, and reached a high of 17th during the year to match the program best. Schaub was recognized as the Big Ten Coach of the Year by her conference peers.

In the 2013-14 season, Schaub led the Buckeyes to a 19-9 record, one win shy of the program record (20), en route to a third-place finish in the B1G and the squad's first NCAA tournament appearance since 2010.

Schaub played four years for the Tennessee Volunteers (2003-06), where she was ranked as high as No. 2 nationally in doubles and the squad reached the No. 4 spot in the national polls during her career.

She was an All-American and second team All-SEC selection as a freshman, finishing the year ranked sixth nationally. Although struggling with injuries as a sophomore and junior campaign, she posted 25 dual-match doubles wins. As a senior, Schaub played at Nos. 2 and 3 singles before moving into the No. 1 position in early April where she went 3-0 in the SEC tournament. She was ranked nationally in doubles as a senior with partner Vilmarie Castellvi and ended her career with 70 doubles wins to rank in the Top 10 in program history.

Schaub was a member of the SEC Good Works Team and SEC Academic Honor Roll and was the recipient of the athletics department's "No Guts, No Glory" award as a senior. She graduated with a degree in psychology in 2006.

Schaub was a two-sport athlete at Lexington High School, playing both tennis and basketball. She won the Ohio state singles title as a senior in 2001 when she led her squad to a third-place finish at the state tournament. She was a part of four conference and district championship squads during her career.

Schaub's brother, Ty, played for the Ohio State men's tennis team and served as a captain as a senior when the Buckeyes were the NCAA runner-up. He is currently the assistant coach at Penn. Her sister, Courtney, was on the tennis team at Cumberland University from 2008-12.

She is the daughter of Ron Schaub and Mindy Cooper. Her father, who played tennis at Ohio University, is the teaching pro at Lakewood Racquet Club and boys and girls tennis coach at Lexington High School.

ADAM COHEN

Assistant Coach
Second season

Adam Cohen joined the Ohio State women's tennis program as an assistant coach in September 2014. Cohen led the Binghamton men's tennis team to seven-consecutive America East conference titles in eight years with the program prior to coming to Columbus.

His first year with the Buckeyes (2014-15) was one of the best in program history. The squad was 20-7, earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament, finished second in the Big Ten and reached the B1G Tournament championship match, ending the year ranked No. 21.

In 2014, Cohen, a five-time America East Coach of the Year, guided his squad to a 16-11 record with a 5-0 ledger vs. conference opponents and helped coach Binghamton's sophomore standout to repeat accolades as America East Player of the Year. In 2012-13, Cohen was honored as the ITA Northeast Region Coach of the Year after leading the Bearcats to their ninth NCAA appearance in 11 years. The program had 34 ITA Scholar-Athletes in his last five years combined, including eight in 2014.

A standout for the Golden Gophers, Cohen played his final two collegiate seasons at Minnesota, leading the program to back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1994 and 1995. He began his collegiate career at Southern Illinois - Edwardsville, where he helped the team finish seventh at the 1993 NCAA Division II Championship.

After serving as an assistant at University of Louisiana-Lafayette (1997-98), where he helped guide the squad to a Sun Belt Conference title and NCAA bid, Cohen joined the coaching staff at his alma mater, Minnesota, and the Golden Gophers made seven NCAA tournament appearances in eight years, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2000. Cohen, who also spent time as the director of tennis at the North Oaks Tennis Program, joined the Binghamton men's tennis team as head coach for the 2007-08 season.

A native of Buffalo, Minn., Cohen earned his bachelor's degree in history from Minnesota in 1997. He and his wife, Sara, have a son, William.

SARAH TAYLOR

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Second season

Former professional tennis player Sarah Taylor joined the Ohio State women's tennis staff in 2014-15 as the volunteer assistant coach. Taylor spent six years playing on the WTA Tour and was ranked as high as No. 68 in the world.

In her pro career, which spanned from 1999-2005, Taylor played in four U.S. Opens and the Australian Open three times, as well as appearances at Wimbledon and the French Open. She earned a silver medal at the 2003 Pan American Games and was the winner of seven USTA/ITF pro circuit singles events. She reached the semifinals of WTA tour events in Bali and Tokyo, defeating former No. 1 Arantxa Sanchez Vacario. In 2003, she advanced to the fourth round of the NASDAQ-100 Open, defeating two Top 20 players. Taylor was a member of the U.S. National Team from 2001-04.

Taylor began her coaching career as the volunteer coach at Harvard in August 2004, spending a season with the Crimson. She was a tennis coach for two years at Hollow Rock Racquet Club in Durham N.C., before serving as a USTA Coach in Boca Raton, Florida. With the USTA, she coached, mentored and oversaw the development of top female prospects 18 and under and captained all 18 and under national team events, including the Junior Fed Cup.

Taylor earned her bachelor's degree in psychology and philosophy from North Carolina in 2009 and has a master of science degree in experimental social psychology from Ohio University, where she is a doctoral candidate. She is an instructor and graduate assistant at OU in the experimental social psychology program.

CARRIE SMITH

Director of Tennis Operations
Ninth season

Carrie Smith has been the director of operations for the Ohio State women's tennis team since 2007-08 and began working with the men's program as its director of operations as well in 2012-13.

Smith serves a multitude of roles for the team, from organizing travel arrangements to overseeing alumni, community service and fundraiser programs. She facilitates summer tournaments and camps for Ohio State, including the Campus Showdown and summer ITA competitions.

Tennis has been a lifelong passion for Smith, and she is currently a member of four adult teams at the Olympic Tennis Club and Racquet Club. She is also a USPTA certified teaching pro.

*1995: single elimination play in championship on day one, double elimination for remaining matches

1996-98: began use of single elimination format for Conference championship; team champion declared Conference champion

1999-05: regular season winner declared "Big Ten Women's Tennis Regular Season Champion" and championship used to determine "Big Ten Conference Champion" and NCAA automatic qualifier; in final team standings, championship winner placed first and championship runner-up placed second (regardless of record); final conference record determined by following formula -- regular-season record plus any upsets in championship. If a lower seed upsets a higher seed, the lower seed will gain a win while the higher seed will incur a loss. However, a win over a team with an identical record will not count as an upset regardless of seeding.

2006-08: Final team standings to include only results from regular season Big Ten matches

2009-present: regular season winner declared "Big Ten Champion" and tournament used to determine "Big Ten Tournament Champion" and NCAA automatic qualifier.

2014-15 YEAR IN REVIEW

- Ohio State made its second consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament, earning an at-large berth into the 64-team draw. It was the 12th appearance in the national tournament for the program and the second under third-year head coach Melissa Schaub.
- The squad's 20 wins tied the program record first set in 2010. The team's 11 shutout victories set the program record, breaking the mark of 10 the 2010 team recorded.
- The Buckeyes finished second in the Big Ten with a program-record 10 wins in league play. The squad advanced to the Big Ten Tournament championship match for the first time since 2004.
- The Buckeyes ended the season ranked No. 21 in the ITA Rankings, the first time in the Top 25 of the final poll since 2000. The team reached No. 17 during the year, tying the program record.
- Gabriella De Santis earned First Team All-Big Ten honors for the second year in a row and was named the ITA Player to Watch for the Midwest Region. De Santis led Ohio State with 11 wins at No. 1 singles and tied with a team-best nine singles wins in conference outings. Alongside sophomore Sandy Niehaus, the Caracas, Venezuela, product led the Scarlet and Gray with 20 overall wins in doubles play and tied for a team-best six wins in conference outings. The duo went 13-5 on court one this spring, ranking as high as No. 24 in the ITA poll, and ended the year 35th.
- Freshman Anna Sanford also was named First Team All-Big Ten, as Ohio State had a freshman earn all-conference honors for the second year in a row. Sanford played all 25 dual matches at the top two singles positions.
- Melissa Schaub was lauded as the Big Ten Coach of the Year, the first conference coach of the year honor for a Buckeye since 1999.
- The squad tied the program record of 14 straight wins at home before falling to Baylor March 1.
- For the sixth year in a row, the program was recognized by the NCAA for academic success, as the squad is in the Top 10 percent nationally in APR.
